

Mental Health Services Now Available for Pregnant Persons and Parents or Caregivers of Newborns

Are you pregnant or a new parent?

Are you experiencing depression, anxiety, recurring worries or upsetting thoughts that make it harder for you to enjoy your baby?

The New York City Early Childhood Mental Health (ECMH) Network now offers therapy remotely or in-person to people throughout New York City who are pregnant or with newborns.

We are here to offer help around:

- Feelings of depression and anxiety
- Recurring worries or upsetting thoughts
- Stress around other difficult or challenging life events

We know that these times with your infant are precious and important. We are here to support you to make the most of this special time together.

All Families are welcome, no matter what language you prefer to speak or your insurance situation.
